STATE RESTED IN WATSON HEARING

Additional Testimony to Show That Teague Bankers Were Carrying Forged Notes.

(By Associated Press.)

Waco, Texas, Sept. 12.—The state rested its case in the habeas corpus hearing for bail for T. R. Watson, indicted for killing John S. Patterson, with the exception of the testimony of Sheriff Burleson and Bank Examiner Slaughter. George Wright, aged 9 years, testified he saw Watson on the afternoon of the shooting tear up slips of paper, which proved to be mutilated notes. J. D. Moore, receiver of the Watsons' bank, testified the torn notes represented about $15,000 each, but the signatures on the notes were not those of parties of the same name. The defense began the introduction of its testimony.

FIRE LARM FALSE.

The fire department responded to an alarm yesterday evening about 7 o'clock from the west side of the city.
It was reported that the West Side negro park building was on fire, but after arriving there no fire was found. Some grass which had been burning near the building caused the alarm to be turned in.
